Pacifistic:

The belief that all things can be and need to be resolved in a peaceful manner, without discord, disapproval or confrontation.

There has never been peace on Earth and there never will be because peace is a state of mind and not the state of a nation.

Word of the Day

Patriotism

Patriotism; a positive emotional attachment to one's nation or homeland: Pride in being a part of one's society; in what it stands for or offers its citizens; sometimes viewed in terms of culture, or political ideology; an appreciation for its historical aspects and its contributions to humanity. Patriotism is a sense of allegiance and a passion to defend the principles that their homeland stands for.

You either have it or you don't.

PAY ATTENTION!!

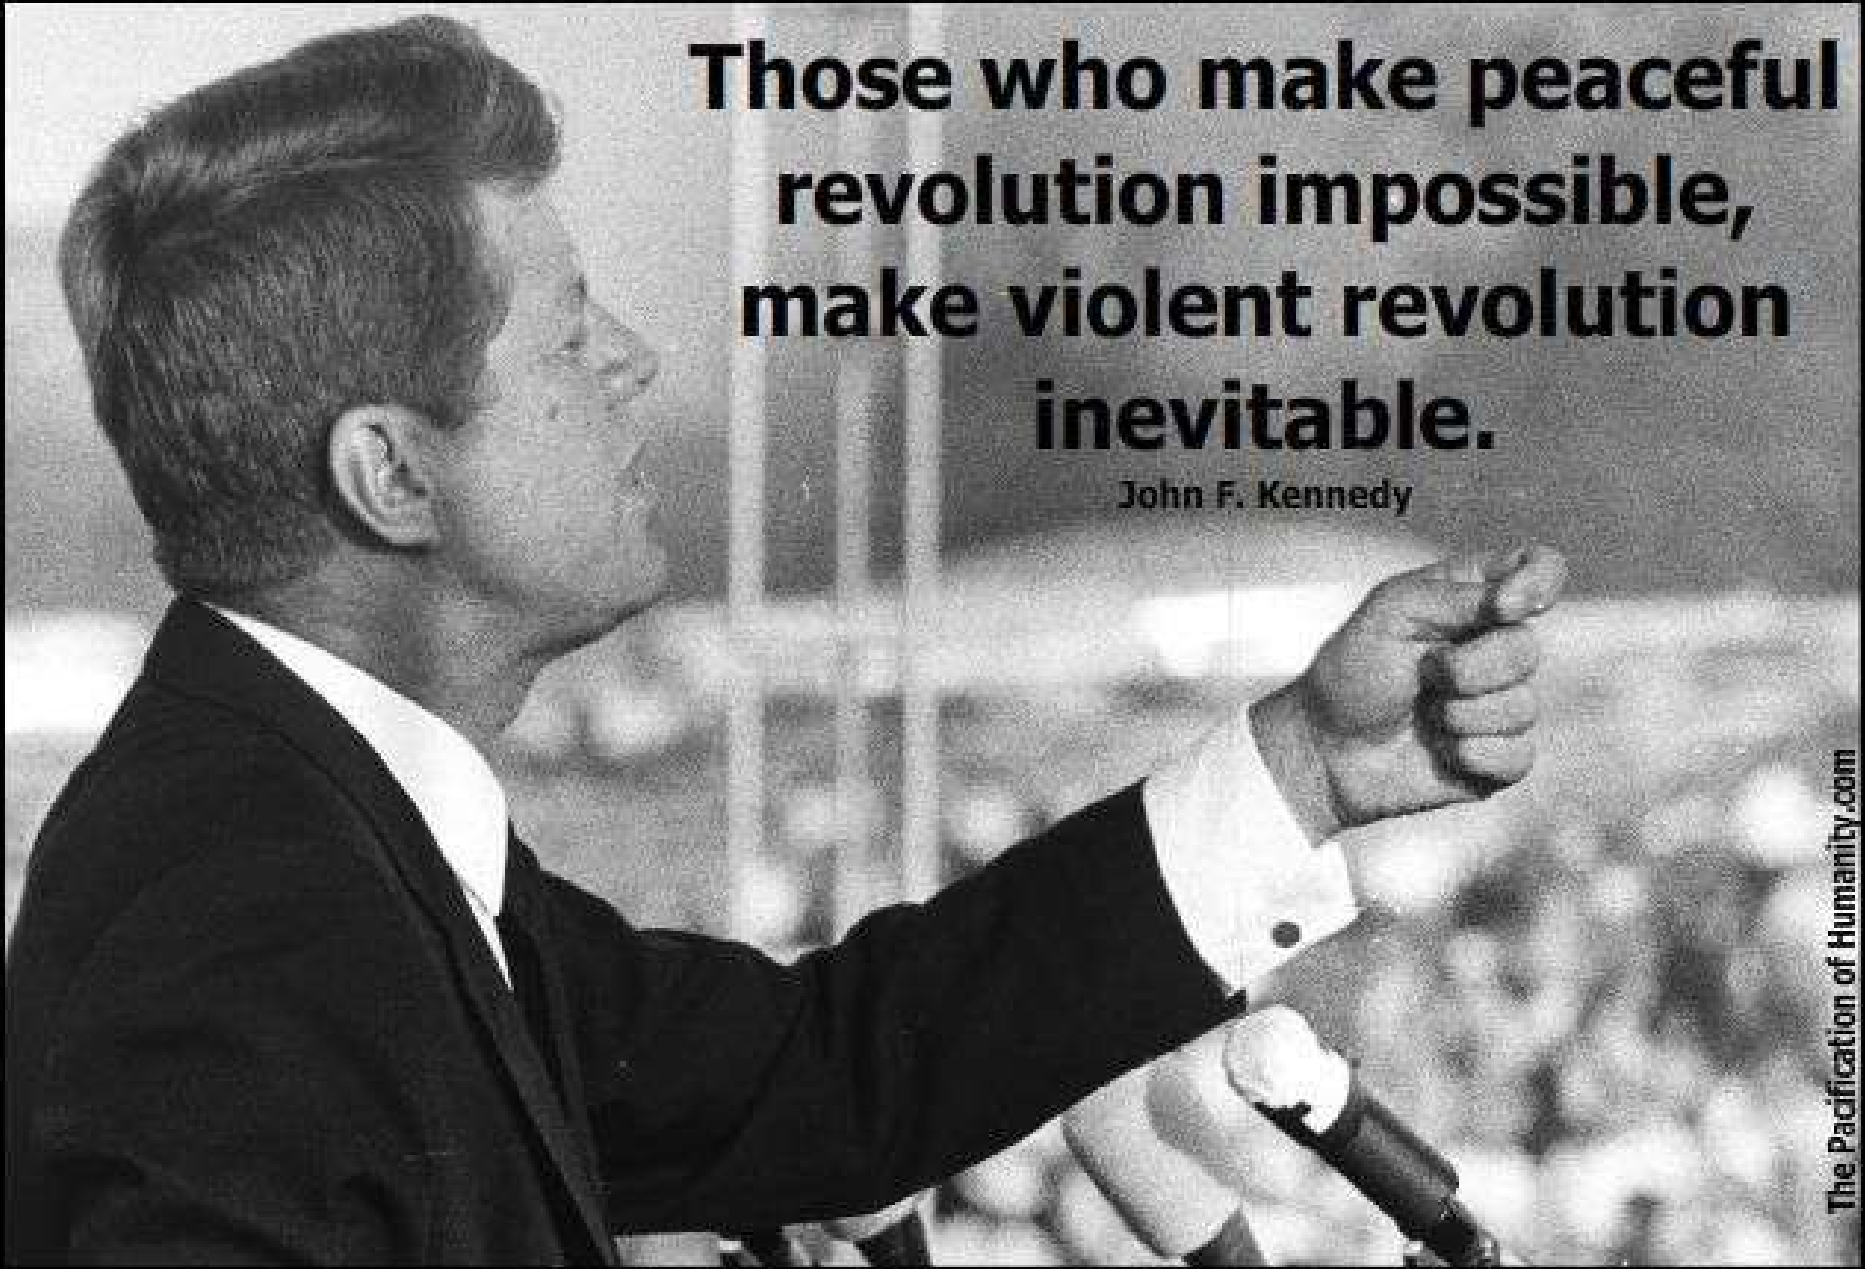

The COVID response is now the life blood of the Nanny State.

The left has edged its way into your family with the sole belief that they know what's better for you and your's than you do.

➤ You remember the Nanny State people? They are the same people that have been telling you that you don't need guns; that the police will be there when you need them but now they want to defund the police.

They are going to protect you from yourself by limiting the size of a soda or sandwich but then close all the fast food restaurants for your own good. They're the people that will tell you what your children need to learn in school but now don't seem to want them to attend.

IT'S TIME TO FIRE THE NANNY!!!

Sometimes we humans confuse love with us playing the part of God and Nature. We think we can speed up the emotional growth of the people around us, save them from themselves. We interfere by demanding they do what we think best. Perhaps we humans are more like the butterfly which must fight on its own to emerge from its cocoon, it needs the strength gained from the experience in order to be healthy, to survive. If we try to assist in its transition it emerges weak and soon dies.

When we Let Go and let nature run its course, the result is often one of unfathomable beauty and grace.

There was a time in history when people wanted to have manners and class more than they wanted to be the first one to get attention.

Manners and class are signs of compassion and grace: Needing attention, a sign of immaturity and diminished self-esteem.

Ideology divides, Values unite.

What we are seeing in our society is the result of what I describe in my book as "Ideological Contagions."

These contagions have grown and festered thanks to unrealistic and unproven political ideology.

The current cultural climate is the direct result of selfish, self-serving agendas that have always manifested in division and discord; even civil war. The current cultural climate is what evolves when unrealistic ideology is deceptively delivered to the minds of the people via educational indoctrination, media propaganda and leadership malfeasance. This is what happens when political self-centered ideology is put before the actual real needs of a society or its people.

This is what our current leadership with their finite wisdom and narrow vision has achieved for us.

Political Sleight of Hand

Current efforts are under way to hide the truth about our political system. It has recently become very clear that the Democrat and Republican parties are not designed to represent the voice of the people. They are instead the names of two pseudo government establishments that can circumvent the will of the people if they choose to. In fact, they designed their electoral processes to guard against the will of the people taking back the power and control of "their" government.

That means that they have the power, not US!

Many Americans Have Become PUSS-ified!

I hear some of my fellow AMERICANS complaining that other people are complaining: They complain that they can't HANDLE the negativity!

Are you people really upset that YOU have to "put up with" FREE speech that YOU don't agree with; speech YOU "find disturbing."

This is what happens when you pull your head out of your ass!

YOU say you don't want to be bothered by VERBAL discord!

The reason YOU can't handle these conversations and "MEAN" talk is because YOU'VE been brainwashed by the people YOU'VE foolishly trusted; YOU'VE been PC'd into being a suppressor of FREE SPEECH.

Wake up and suck it up buttercup! This MEAN talk exists in place of actual fighting. Mean talk happens so that YOU and YOUR friends don't have to DIE. FREE SPEECH has no cost other than tolerance. You don't get to HUSH people up or make them FEEL bad for voicing their anger about the lies you believed. FREE SPEECH is an ESSENTIAL requirement for a FREE society! Our founders knew FREE SPEECH could prevent FREE DEATH.

YOUR fellow Americans have had to listen to the lies and insanity from the progressives that you believed for years; now it's your turn to deal with the things you don't like. YOU now have to FACE the reality of your failure to confront the real problems. Grow up! Be thankful for the harsh WORDS you hear; they are saving lives!! Maybe you could try hearing these truths instead of fighting so hard trying to deny them.

The problems in the world today aren't about conflict, war or religion. Nearly every major struggle in the world today gets its origin from pseudo intellectual Petri dishes in the form of ideology... Ideology is emotion over reality. Ideology dreams of changing reality but does not require feasibility or fact to fester. All ideology requires is your willingness to suspend reason, to be emotional and to limit your vision so you can dream their dream.

Well if you are afraid to go outside because you might catch something then you have just a small taste of what people with real anxiety disorders have been feeling every single day, sometimes every single minute for years.

Remember when you thought they could just get over it or have faith? Well, it's your turn to try. Oh yeah, the next time they say they don't feel like doing something, keep encouraging them but remember how you were feeling today.

The Left didn't just steal the vote from the big cities.

They stole the voice of the black & minority voters that live there.

The sick thing is that they assumed they had the RIGHT to do it, and to then use those populations as cover for their illegal acts.

They assumed they wouldn't mind; without asking.

That stereotyping of all the black and minority peoples as Democrats is true systemic racism.

It appears the Democrat party has returned to it's roots.

EFFECT

The US "Republic" and Electoral System Dumb'ed Down for the Indoctrinated College Crowd

Trump won 30 states (+ME-2)

Hillary won 20 states (+DC)

Arguing for the popular vote suggests that some states should matter more than others in a Federalist system that represents 50 states; simply because those states have more people.

(The coastal areas of a nation will always have more people.)

A State is (supposedly) a sovereign entity: As in Head of State, State of Israel, Russian State, German State etc...

(A State is a country everywhere but here in the US.)

This country contains about 325 million people.

The Federal Government is made up of 50 states and a few territories.

The States elect the Federal leader/President, not the people.

The people elect the state and local governments.

The Federal government protects the States; the States protect and serve the people.

The Electoral College was designed to proportionally give all the States equal say in electing the federal leader. That is how and why they came up with the idea of the Electoral College; it was a method to proportion the smaller states voice in a larger Federal System.

If each State had one vote the election result would have been the same.

Revisionist History

Efforts to erase history are happening all around us; from the removal of statues in the public square to the disdain for religion and God. History is not always pretty, but it is always a reminder of reality. Forget history and you will repeat it. Push back hard against those who wish to alter the consciousness of man by changing who he was.

The greatest common denominator about people who become addicted is that they have become spiritually sick. Some use the chemical because they are emotionally/spiritually unwell and some become emotionally/spiritually unwell because they have used the chemical too often and/or for too long.

Want to know the easiest way to figure who is in the political establishment?

It's all the people who tell you who do vote for and who can't win.

The US was the "Great Melting Pot."

Blended cultures fusing together to form a symphony of the best attributes to become uniquely American.

Academia began programming the youth with the false ideology that multiple cultures could stay intact while living in a single society. The New Separate but Equal.

They want a "Salad Bowl" and not a "Melting Pot."

The "Salad Bowl" suggests separate ideologies can exist together while maintaining individual identity.

This is the end of what it means to be uniquely American.

All ideology creates conflict and results in civil discord.

Ideology is not reality.

Not Working!

White males as a group have never held the real power in America.

Academia and its offspring, the political elite, held and still do hold the real power in America.

This is the power to influence and control the young mind by controlling what it knows and doesn't know.

It just so happens that academia and the political elite used to be all white males.

Our past problems were never really about race at all.

Our problems were and still are, that a small group of people are holding onto the power that molds the American psyche.

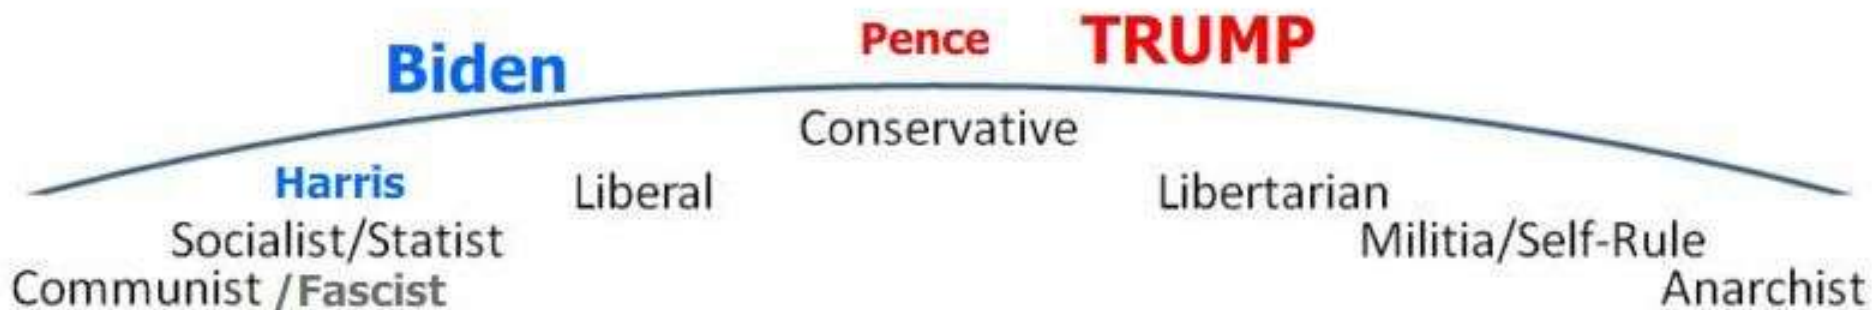

This is the power that influences the vote by limiting exposure to contrary data and real science thereby warping the American perspective.

This power needs to be taken away!

The reason why the 12 Steps are so effective as a part of any emotionally based recovery process is because they were designed to show us which parts are broken.

Once we identify the broken parts the 12 Step Programs provide the personal experience of others to give us insight into how to overcome these obstacles.

A relationship with a Higher Power then provides one the necessary elements of hope to believe it can happen and the personal value to believe that it should.

The Naturalization Oath of American Citizenship is an Oath of Assimilation and Allegiance.

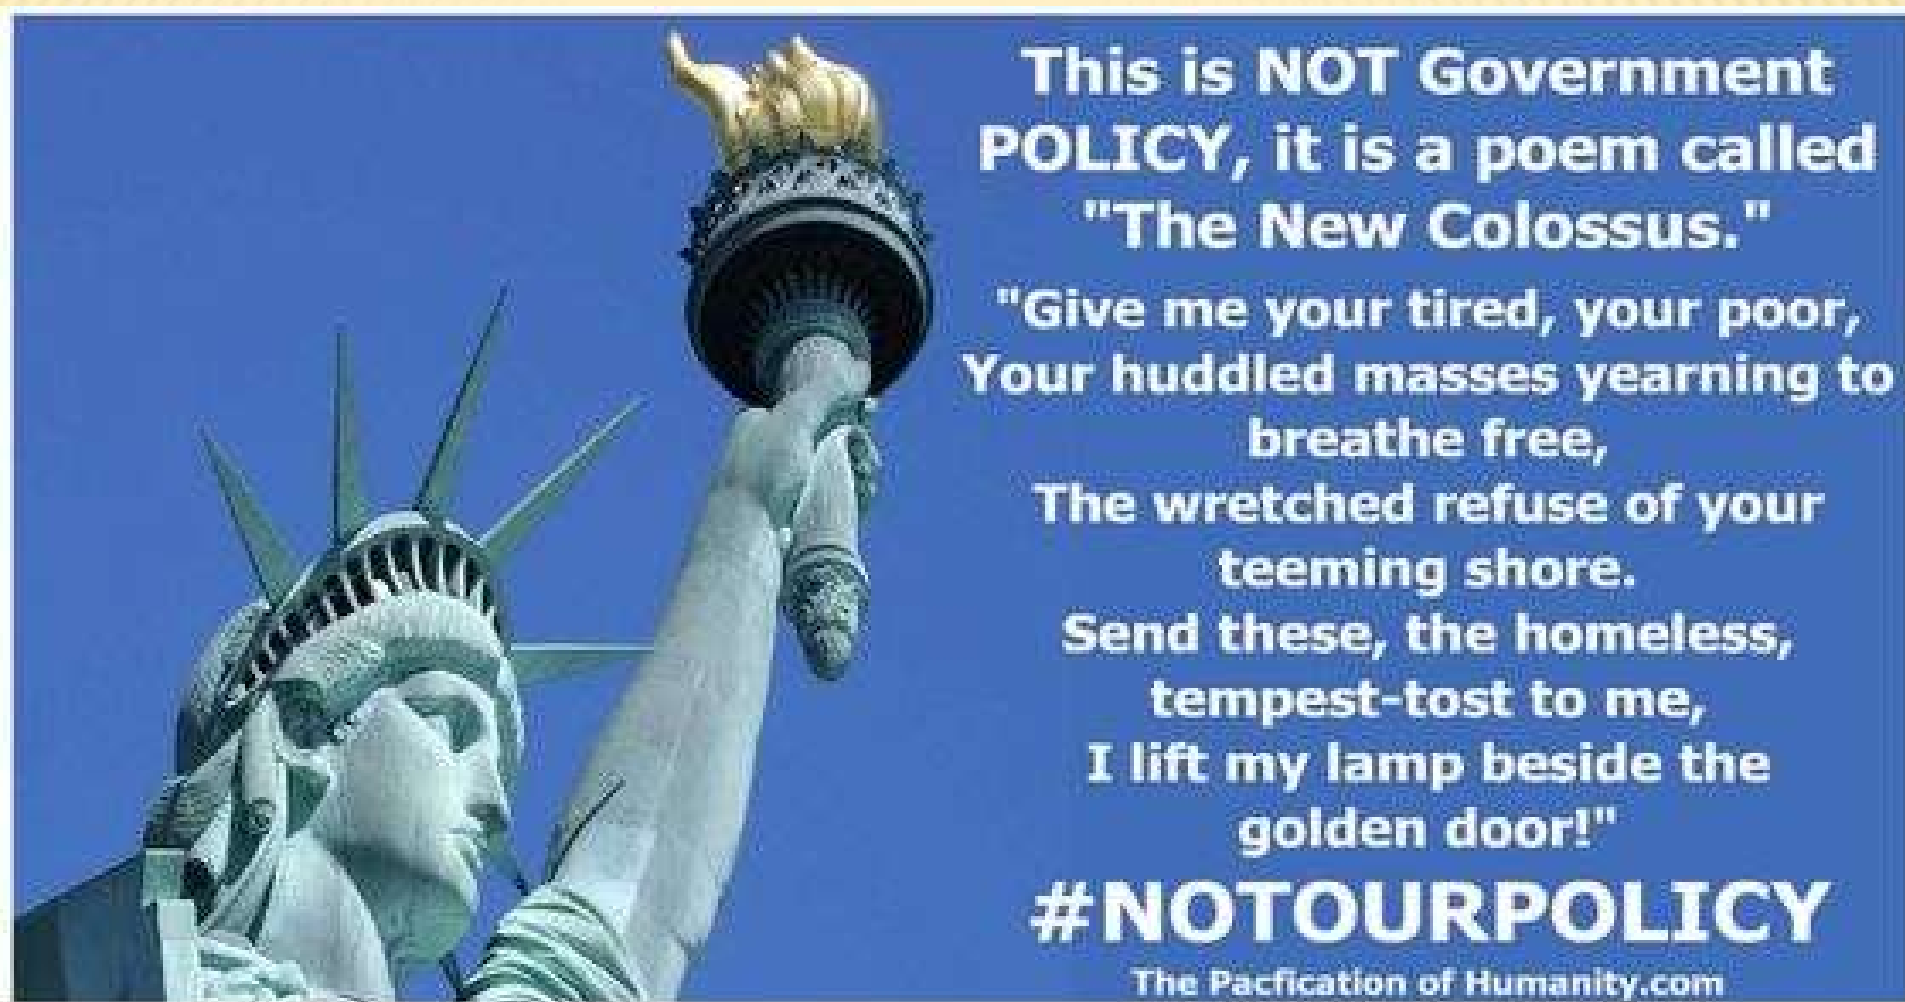

It is always preceded by a Civics Exam to make sure you know and agree to these conditions. Illegals have not taken this class nor have they sworn this Oath.

That is why they're called illegals!

This is what they must agree to; no exemptions for Muslims

"I hereby declare, on oath, that I absolutely and entirely renounce and abjure all allegiance and fidelity to any foreign prince, potentate, state, or sovereignty, of whom or which I have heretofore been a subject or citizen; that I will support and defend the Constitution and laws of the United States of America against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that I will bear arms on behalf of the United States when required by the law; that I will perform noncombatant service in the Armed Forces of the United States when required by the law; that I will perform work of national importance under civilian direction when required by the law; and that I take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion; so help me God."

The Supreme Court has determined that each State must recognize other States' laws when it comes to things like driver's licenses, marriage licenses and business licenses.

How come that same legal rationale doesn't require gun carry licenses to be honored as well?

The right to bear arms is the only one clearly stated in the Constitution; it clearly states that it is a right that SHALL not be infringed.

Politicians have figured out something very important (to them).

They know that if they can keep the people polarized, separated and mad at one another, then the people can't unite to be mad at them.

You see, they know that if unity happens they'll be the ones out of work or maybe even in jail.

Emmanuel S. John

The problems in the world today aren't about conflict, war or religion. Nearly every major struggle in the world today gets its origin from pseudo intellectual Petri dishes in the form of ideology... Ideology is emotion over reality. Ideology dreams of changing reality but does not require feasibility or fact to fester. All ideology requires is your willingness to suspend reason, to be emotional and to limit your vision so you can dream their dream.

"The Pacification of Humanity; Exposing the Ideological contagions"

The Pacification of Humanity.com

Ideology is a Fantasy of the Mind

By definition it dreams of how things should be, not how things are.

Without reality, living in an ideological mindset is a form of delusion where the idealist believes something to be in existence that is not.

Ideology does not need reality to sustain itself, it needs carriers.

Ideology is a delusion of mass hysteria that must infect others in order to survive.

Thus, Ideology is a contagion of the mind.

The antidote; critical thinking and reality.

Is racism still illegal?

"White Grievance" is a racist generalization; a stereotyping of an entire group of people based on the supposed thoughts of a few people labeled as the white race.

It is a fabrication of the academic elite and a tool of division from the "left" used to turn the populous against its self.

It is a suggestion that only "white people" are mad about the mess the "left" has created with its foolish ideological musings and unrealistic policies of impossibility.

It is another attempt to create a victim state for the people who actually caused the problems we now face as a country.

THERE IS NO REAL JUSTICE IN WHAT'S LEFT OF AMERICA!

The system has been broken by a small group of elite leftists; including their accomplices in the media and big tech. They have assumed control of what is right and wrong. They have appointed themselves the moral authority so there is no need for a "Justice System." When one group can act with bought and paid for impunity, we don't have a Democratic Republic, what we have is an aristocracy.

From the guy who designed it!

Thomas Jefferson

"God forbid we should ever be twenty years without such a rebellion. The people cannot be all, and always well informed. The part which is wrong will be discontented, in proportion to the importance of the facts they misconceive. If they remain quiet under such misconceptions, it is lethargy, the forerunner of death to the public liberty. ... And what country can preserve its liberties, if its rulers are not warned from time to time, that this people preserve the spirit of resistance? Let them take arms. The remedy is to set them right as to the facts, pardon and pacify them. What signify a few lives lost in a century or two?
The tree of liberty must be refreshed from time to time, with the blood of patriots and tyrants.
It is its natural manure."

Time to bring back the boycott!

ENMESHMENT

Losing ourselves in someone else is a great feeling but when we are not able to, or stop trying to draw our individual selves back out of the union/closeness we become enmeshed!

We get lost!

It's nice to be close to the people we love but we need to remember that we are all still individuals, that they are still individual; separate selves with separate destinies. The actions of others are not a reflection of our worth or value.

Want to know why academia and the entire education system has stopped teaching and discussing the philosophy of the mind?

Because they have painted themselves into a theoretical corner with their propagandist agenda to objectify the subject in popular culture. They are trying to make how you look matter more than who you are. They can't resolve the philosophical dilemma of making externals matter in a psycho spiritual framework so they distract you from that reality with emotion. Since it is impossible to make rational the idea that external features matter more than what's on the inside they have had to suspend the mind over matter discussion. They don't want you to believe that thoughts matter because that would give everyone of us the ability to see and act outside of our physical and cultural make-ups. They can't resolve the philosophical history that suggests that what is in your heart may be different than what is on your face.
