Senator Rand Paul

I recently introduced the Defense of Environment and Property Act of 2012. Thousands of property owners across America face aggressive action from the Environmental Protection Agency with no means to fight back. This bill would balance environmental protection with the fundamental American right to private property. Do you have an EPA story?

Sen. Rand Paul proposes bill \(S.2122\) to clarify the definition of “navigable waters”
blog.pacificlegal.org

In 1972, Congress passed the Federal Water Pollution Control Act (subsequently amended as the Clean Water Act). That law prohibited the discharge of pollutants into “navigable waters” without a federal permit. Although government agencies initially interpreted “navigable waters” to mean ...
