Subject: THE NATURE CONSERVANCY - HOW IT TAKES AWAY PRIVATE PROPERTY

Please find below an extract of one page from my web site www.FreedomForAllSeasons.org entitled Freedom From Environmental Extremism - <http://www.freedomforallseasons.org/FreedomFromEnvironmentalExtremism.html>.

I started waking up to environmental extremism in 2004 along with thousands of other private property owners in America. Please check out the headings of my research and postings below regarding “The Nature Conservancy” on my web site. This paints a much different picture of your white washed claims of protecting the environment.

I used to swallow your green pill and occasionally purchase your calendars and make small donations to you decades ago. I did not have a clue about the dark side of eco green extreme organizations. Now I have documented all the takings of private and public property at the expense of property owners and taxpayers.

It has taken me some 15 years to research these takings by primarily far left and globalist funded groups. Now there are thousands of rural private property groups, ranchers, farmers, rural property owners waking up to expose this deception of saving a species or a swamp used as a false flag to take control of land. What may be an “environmental” passion or an agenda with you is a taking of property without local or state consent to those aware of the eco extreme game you play

If this is hard to believe, please spend some time on my site and explore how this global to local taking of property is stealthy done unnoticed to the vast majority of uninformed Americans though waking up slowly.
