Subject: Maricopa Miscreants Censured – still not enough

Hello Jack,

Finally, the Maricopa County Republican Party censured failed County Recorder Stephen Richer along with four other members of the Board of Supervisors because of their terrible failures in the 2022 election.

The Patriot Project reports:

The Maricopa County Republican Party voted at their annual meeting earlier this month to censure Maricopa County Recorder Stephen Richer along with four GOP members of the county's board of supervisors for the handling of the 2022 general election and their failure to cooperate with the 2020 election audit of the county.

The four censured supervisors include chairman Bill Gates along with Thomas Galvin, Clint Hickman and Jack Sellers, the Arizona Sun Times reported.

The vote to censure resolution passed with 1,460 in favor, 138 against and 36 abstaining.

"The [precinct captains] in Maricopa have spoken, overwhelmingly censuring Richer and the MCBOS, the key line being 'Ceases immediately any and all recognition and support of the above individuals being censured and encourages all registered Republicans to expel them permanently from office,'" Maricopa County Member-at-Large Brian Ference told the Times.

Yes, more of that. We need punishment for those responsible for Election Fraud.

However, while of course these fraudsters and incompetents should be censured (no doubt of that), this is not nearly enough.

We must demand perp walks for everyone who helped perpetrate fraud in Arizona's elections!

Conservatism is being attacked in Arizona from all sides. Kari Lake is taking her appeal to the next level and I have been fighting punitive sanctions in the courts for my lawsuit against Fontes and Hobbs where they refused to even look at the evidence.

We are fighting corrupt court systems, fraudsters, and lying Liberals who are trying to punish anyone who wants transparency in elections.

This is why I haven't given up the fight for Election Integrity. We must demand transparency, accountability, and perp walks for everyone involved in Election Fraud. There is no other way to protect our Republic!
