

Where Are The Angels

Where are the Angels

Where is my Mom

Where is Dad

Are they all gone

Where is my heart

Where is my old home

What happen to her

Where is Mom

Where are my Angels

Tell me God, where have they gone

Where is my Ole family

My Ole home town, Dad and Mom

In youth I thought I was free

My Angels were always there for me

Where are my Angels now

Anger & pain have blinded me

Come the care givers

Into my reality

Come the RN's, LPN's, & Care helpers

Come the Angels who change her now

Where are my Angels

Where is my family

Are they gone, are they free

Maybe they are here caring for her

Perhaps God has transformed them

I believe

Into the caring staff at this nursing home

All invisible to me

Dedicated to Regency of Auburn staff & my Mother

Dorothy F. Venrick born in a log cabin Saco, Montana Jan. 14, 1911

by Jack R. Venrick, Enumclaw, Washington, March 31, 2009