Stronger Together!

If you love America, if you love Montana and if you want to preserve and strengthen the principles upon which America was founded, then YOU are a Last Chance Patriot!

As we move forward with Last Chance Patriots we hope to increase our impact by joining forces with like-minded, energetic, committed folks who will work collaboratively to get Montanans to recognize and actively oppose the threats that our state and our nation face today.

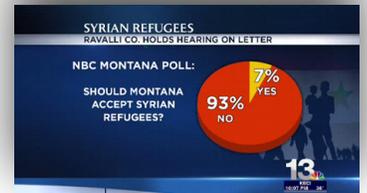

Ed Kugler, Linda Sauer and Caroline Solomon have committed to taking the first steps to establish an organization that will provide critical information to concerned citizens through newsletters, speaking engagements around the state, presentations by well-respected guest speakers, and a presence on social media.

There is a lot of work to be done and we need your help. If you would like to work with us, in any capacity, please indicate your interest in an e-mail to lastchancepatriots@gmail.com.

Missoula Refugee Update thru July 31st

As of June 15, 2017 there had been 115 refugees resettled in Missoula since August 2016. Their countries of origin are:

Table with 2 columns: Country of Origin and Count. Includes Democratic Republic of Congo (37), Eritrea (50), Ethiopia (7), Iraq (12), and Syria (9).

I am happy to report that between June 15th and July 31st there were NO refugees added to these totals. This is unlikely to continue for long.

All Last Chance Patriots must keep our eyes and ears open and share with us any stories you may hear about refugees leaving Missoula or relocating to other cities in Montana. We will keep you informed about any additional refugees that are resettled in Montana in the coming months.

Mom Always Liked YOU Best ... Federal Indian Policy

By Elaine D. Willman, MPA

It's eighty-three years late in coming, but at long last the Indian Reorganization Act of 1934 (IRA) is finally getting its first-ever review, and hopefully serious reform. IRA (48 stat. 984) forms the backbone of federal Indian policy across the country and has been extended, expanded and abused far beyond the original intent of Congress.

IRA (48 stat. 984) forms the backbone of federal Indian policy across the country and has been extended, expanded and abused far beyond the original intent of Congress.

In order to understand IRA and its major impacts on America, let me share an analogy. Imagine an American household with a single mom and a couple of sons, Johnny and Jimmy. One day Mom calls the family together to make an announcement:

"Johnny, you were here first; Jimmy you were here second. Therefore, Johnny, you are more valuable and important than your brother. And Jimmy, you have intruded upon Johnny's room, his life and his world, so a big chunk of everything you earn from now on and forever will be given to me, Mom, and I will redirect your earnings to Johnny. You really don't belong here, Jimmy, because you were here second."

This is exactly what has been happening in our country for eighty-three years. Since the Tribes (Johnny) tell the government (Mom) that they were here first, the non-tribal inhabitants (Jimmy) have become second-class citizens.

The mantra foisted upon Americans for decades is, "We were here first; you stole our land." Neither is true. But even if it were true, the response as of 1789 should have been, "So what?" That was the way of the world in the 1600's under the Doctrine of Discovery. Life changed on this continent in September 1789.

One could hardly call the poor souls arriving on the Mayflower and other ships to establish a new life on this continent, conquerors. They had fled religious oppression under a tyrannical King, and were seeking liberty, religious and individual freedom. These were the seeds that became the Great American Experiment. But for that "transgression," apparently, Americans are to be forever damned.

In my analogy, Mom is our Mother Country. Imagine that Mom's folks come to visit their grandsons and discover the new household rules. Mom's folks, representing our Founders, would be astonished. The seeds planted in the early 1600s by arrivals from Europe gave birth to the Framers of our Constitution, and our Republic form of government. Regardless of historical decisions, some right, some wrong, the reality is that the United States of America, as of September 1789, is our government, inclusive of the now fifty separate and sovereign states. Revisionist history has been common practice for far too long, but the actual reversal of history occurring today is the slumbering thunder creeping across this country.

Mom Always Liked YOU Best ... Federal Indian Policy

There is no tribal sovereignty recognized in the U.S. Constitution, but such sovereignty (just like Jimmy paying perpetual debt to Johnny) has acquired a power beyond the Constitution's declared sovereign authority of individual citizens and states. States like Washington, Montana, Idaho and some Midwestern states have continually relinquished their state authority in deference to all tribal whims. Many states have created de facto "trust" relationships with tribes where none existed; only the federal government has a court ordered (but not constitutional) "trust" relationship with their "dependent wards—Indian tribes."

Johnny's governments (tribes) may directly finance political parties, incumbents or candidate election officials. Jimmy's government may not. Johnny's businesses are all tax-exempt and growing enormously. Jimmy's businesses are taxed to the max. Johnny's government members can hold elected office anywhere across the country, passing land use and taxation laws upon Jimmy that do not apply to Johnny. Johnny has priority over most of the river and water systems throughout the Western states because Johnny was here first, and Jimmy's needs don't matter...he shouldn't exist.

There is a wondrous Statue of Liberty in New York Harbor that welcomes all to come, as the early Jamestown settlers, legally to the United States. We are a country forged and thriving by "intruders" from all over the world. Our republic form of government does not classify those who were here first as superior, nor does it distinguish a priority between the person naturalized yesterday as a full American citizen and the child born here five minutes ago. But federal Indian policy requires perpetual debt and shame for all who came second.

And now we take a deeper look at the Indian Reorganization Act and its impact on the lives of American citizens. In 2009, the U.S. Supreme Court ruled in Carcieri v Salazar that IRA was intended to reorganize only those tribes on existing reservations and "now under federal jurisdiction" in June, 1934. There were only some 65-70 actual Indian reservations in the United States in 1934. Therefore, the IRA was to reorganize only those 65-70 tribes, and no more. The Carcieri ruling was a political earthquake.

The Department of Interior and Bureau of Indian Affairs have not just reorganized reservations in existence in 1934; they have federally recognized a current total of 567 tribal governments, each acquiring and expanding their reservations, each receiving tax exemptions, and each receiving money from Jimmy ("second-class" citizens).

The response to Carcieri under the Obama administration was to utterly ignore it, along with other Supreme Court rulings where the High Court rolled back tribal governing authority, replacing state sovereign authority.

The good news is that on June 22, 2017, the Department of Interior published a "Notice of Regulatory Reform" with an open public comment period on the Indian Reorganization Act (IRA) and four other major federal statutes. The Notice reads:

"This document also provides an overview of Interior's approach for implementing the regulatory reform initiative to alleviate unnecessary burdens placed on the American people." No doubt Johnny's 567 tribal governments and the entire Indian industry will be weighing in with their comments to legitimize and further expand decades of IRA unauthorized overreach.

If you want to do something that's really important, Call YOUR Members of Congress! TODAY!

Tell him or her that you want the Refugee Act of 1980 SCRAPPED and DEFUNDED because it has been a boondoggle for supposed 'religious' charities who secretly place refugees (chosen first by the United Nations) in your towns while their salaries/offices/travel and lobbying are paid for with your tax dollars!

They spend your money while putting your security in jeopardy! Clearly Donald Trump can't do this alone! It is Congress that must change the law and it is Congress that appropriates the money.

Guess who knows the value of Congress — refugee industry lobbyists and the contractors spending your money! They are all calling Congress this week because they get it!

World Refugee Day is June 20th and in advance of that the industry has gone into high gear with a grassroots lobbying campaign — "stand with refugees" is a euphemism for give us more money to move more third world poverty to American towns!

This is our very first opportunity to truly confront the erroneous and detrimental policies that one ethnicity that was here “first” is superior to all others in this country because all other ethnicities are intruders on this continent, and that communalism, socialism, and tribalism is preferable to individual liberty.

It is imperative that states, counties, towns, and Jimmy—who lives within an Indian reservation—describe their “burden” at this time. If Jimmy stays silent, Jimmy’s wallet will continue to be annually poached for the expansion of tribalism as a governing system, replacing our Constitutional republic form of government.

ACTION ITEM

Please get your comments on the record to the Department of Interior in one of two ways:

1. Submit comments to the federal “eRulemaking Portal,” regulations.gov. In the Search box, enter the appropriate document number (DOI-2017-0003-0002).

Or, 2. Mail a hard-copy of your comments to: Office of the Executive Secretariat, ATTN: Reg. Reform; U.S. Department of Interior; 1859 C Street NW. MailStop 7328; Washington, DC 20240.

All other Americans are up against 567 tribal governments with 400 more waiting in the wings for their recognition (not “reorganization”). How long must Jimmy owe his older brother who was here “first” and who seldom says “thank you,” and never says “enough”?

I am not a secondary American citizen. Are you?

ATTENTION! COMING TO MONTANA IN OCTOBER ... Trevor Loudon

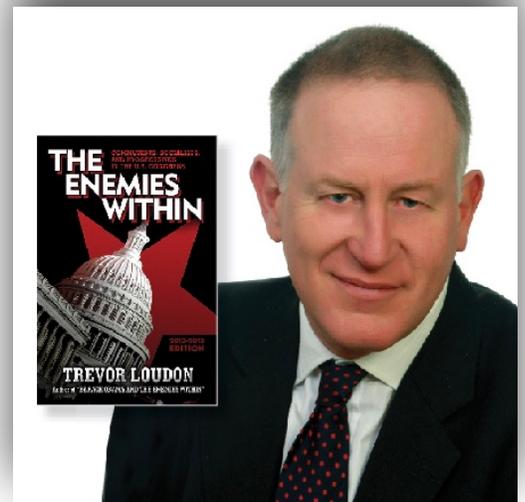

As you're reading this we are working to bring Trevor Loudon to Montana in mid-October. Trevor Loudon is an author, filmmaker and public speaker from Christchurch, New Zealand. For more than 30 years, he has researched radical left, Marxist and terrorist movements and their covert influence on mainstream politics.

Trevor Loudon's thesis is that what is commonly regarded as mainstream political policy is in fact driven and guided by hidden subversive elements. The Democratic party's consistent defunding of the US military, Obamacare, the Iran Nuclear Deal, normalization of relations with Cuba, Islamic refugee resettlement, $15 minimum wage, fracking bans, pipeline shutdowns and the push for illegal alien amnesty are all consistent with far-left and Islamist agendas.

Trevor Loudon believes that these forces must be exposed and countered, as America's continued role as a bastion of freedom is pivotal for the future of western civilization.

We're working on a multi-city tour across Montana to help Trevor use his expertise to expose the Left and learn what we can do about it.

We will send out a Special Edition Newsletter for Trevor's visit as soon as we finalize the details.

It's important to our State and our Nation that we work as a team to overcome the assault from the Left!

Coming to a Town Near You Soon

Everyday our news media brings us news that just a few years ago would have been unthinkable. Today, it's commonplace and usually starts in our schools. Take the case of high school Senior and graduation speaker Moriah Bridges. A Pennsylvania school Principal, with the backing of the School Board, prohibited her from ending her speech thanking 'her Heavenly Father or Lord'.

We move to the other coast in Washington state where popular high school football coach Joe Kennedy was fired from his job for refusing to quit silently praying on the sidelines as the State of Washington told him he must do. Note ... he was silently praying.

Back to the other coast we have Vero Beach High School student J.P. Krause who was disqualified by the Superintendent for using campaign slogans and methods akin to one President Donald Trump. J.P. proposed building a wall between his high school and a rival. After a public outcry the School Board caved and allowed him to be Class President.

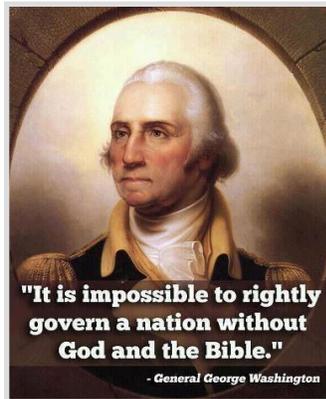

At Evergreen State College students organized a 'Day of Absence' event. For the event white students were 'encouraged' to not come to campus during the event. A Professor who challenged the wisdom of the event was roughly confronted by 50 students who demanded his resignation. He was forced to hold his classes off campus because the campus police said they could not guarantee his safety.

A recent poll by LendEDU of 1,659 college students in America shows that 36% of them think that having 'safe spaces' set aside are absolutely necessary. At Barnard College following the election of President Donald Trump female student government leaders sponsored a 'safe space' event offering hot chocolate and feminist coloring pages for attendees.

When President Trump called ISIS a bunch of losers, Congressman, CNN and all the way to The View called him irresponsible. They said it would lead to more terrorist attacks. Our country, and our world, is under attack. We are in a war for survival of the West and our way of life.

Think it can't happen in the Great State of Montana? Think again. Recently at the Montana VA in Fort Harrison there was a Vietnam Era Marine who checked himself into the PTSD center, where he stayed in the program for a couple of weeks. One day, during a group session in walks a Vietnam era veteran, a transvestite, and things got real uncomfortable for all. The Marine took issue with how things were handled and what was happening. Long story short, he said a few things and was told he could be charged with a hate crime or he could leave the program immediately. He left. Can you imagine?

The time is now to save our State and our Nation for our posterity.

THE TIME IS NOW!

What Can I Do?

One of the most common questions we get is 'What Can I Do?' First, you have to care. You have to care enough about our way of life, our State and our Country to learn what is happening.

Second, you can attend meetings and events in your community. Every citizen needs to awaken to our nations impending demise.

Third, when you engage in meetings and events bring your friends, co-workers and children who are old enough to understand the issues.

Fourth, you can hold informational meetings in your home. Last Chance Patriots has resources you can borrow.

Fifth, you can write. Write to your elected officials, your school board, your State or Federal elected officials. Make your voice heard.

Sixth, you can donate money and time in support of our efforts. It takes money to bring speakers to Montana and have a presence on the web. Contributions can be mailed to PO Box 264, Dayton, MT 59914.

We individually all have differing circumstances. We cannot do all of these but we can do some of them. There has never been a time in America's history where our way of life is so threatened.

Know what is being taught in your children or grandchildren school. Know what City Council is planning.

Montana and America is counting on you!
