To: Americans Fighting To Take Back Their Freedom
 bcc: All Other americans & governments Who Are Living Off Of Our Freedoms, i.e. Media, Washington Senate, House, Supreme Court, King County Council, Association of Washington Cities,

This is an outline of the debauchery by American government and those who have successfully swindled US.

Our sovereignty and free choice have been most effectively stolen often with our coerced "voluntary" compliance. I have been researching this strange story increasingly over the last several years since the theft of my land and the near loss of my life and my home by the communists who control King County. I too voluntarily entered into an agreement with this corrupt county government in 2002 to reduce my pension busting property taxes if I would use my land in certain ways.

I later found that this "contract" was not only done under deception but is completely unconstitutional and violates all of my rights, the law of the land and those organic laws our laws are based upon. Property taxes are unconstitutional. They are stealing my pension to contract with me to steal my unalienable rights to use my land as they see fit. Government uses this profile of deception often to gain compliance. It is the same story with the 1040 form, drivers licenses, seat belts, vehicles licenses, building permits, home improvement fees, you name it. This is a violation of the Bill of Rights and purely an illegitimate government source of revenue.

The history of King County's debauchery taking my land, is not unlike what is happening in America. This story is more often beyond one's imagination and ability to listen and believe, let alone, act upon. It is truly "Stranger Than Fiction". As the freedom movement turns over more stones of debauchery, what we often find, does not easily fit into our own indoctrinated and patriotic mind set.

I was raised in a government family. My Father served in the Army Engineers Topographic Battalion in WWII. Dad was in North Africa during Hitler/Rommel's invasion and then in Hawaii during the Japanese/Yamamoto's Pacific invasion translating aerial photos into maps for our troops to use. He went on with his career as a U.S. Forest Service Ranger after the war. He had this ceremony of tipping his hat when we entered and left a U.S. Dept. of Agriculture National Forest. I did the same. The Forest Ranger in those days, maybe more so now sadly, acted as proxy Sheriff. The U.S. Forest Service was a great source of family pride and honor. The forest rangers were very tight. I grew up with other U.S. Forest Service kids. I tell you this so you will understand the horror I am discovering. This is not my discovery work per se, but others work. I am merely the virtual messenger.

The research of others below, show many of the chains that bind us plus some keys to our freedom

Herein offers more evidence why private property owners, farmers, ranchers & contractors are increasingly jailed, financially & emotionally brutalized, taxed to death & even commit suicide due to government abuse.

Read "The Power To Destroy" - How The IRS became America's Most Powerful Agency" by Senator William V. Roth, Jr.

I find no constitutional law, common law or laws of nature to justify the taking of private property

The usurpation of private property goes beyond all precedence of organic law history

Sovereign individuals are subject only to Common Law, whose primary purpose is to protect individual rights

The U.S. Constitution was written from

1. The Common Law and
2. The Bible
3. In an extensive study by the University of Houston -
<http://www.coralridge.org/imp/impact07056.aspx>

One third of the quotations in the U.S. Constitution & Declaration of Independence are cited from the Bible

“Deuteronomy is cited more than John Locke or anyone else”

There are no founding or organic laws that justify the use of force against sovereign state Citizens

1. Sovereign Citizens owe no one, anything
2. nor do We owe "income" taxes
3. nor do We owe property taxes
4. nor do We owe sales taxes, flat taxes or fair taxes
5. see article on this above by Devvy "Tax Cuts...."

Our unalienable rights cannot be converted into privileges by anyone,

not by the courts, legislatures and administration

not by the teachers and their unions

not by the media

not by government employees and their unions

not by the cities, counties, state or federal government employees

not by unelected bodies of people

not the United Nations

not by the Supreme Law of the Land not even by God, i.e. God bestowed these rights upon us not by welfare types, Medicare types, social security types,

Medicaid types, et al

1. "Traditionally rights of a citizen were a negative concept
2. The original concept were freedoms from religious persecution, arbitrary arrest, censorship, etc.
3. Now the freedoms from have been debauched into "rights of" & claims to housing, health care, etc.
4. This redefinition occurred quietly and near unconsciously ushering in the present welfare state.
5. Legislation under the New Deal and profound skepticism of the future of capitalism, i.e. Great Depression caused Roosevelt and his advisors to a shift of fundamental and long lasting change in attitude toward private property
6. Laws conceived & presented as emergency measures were subtly transformed into innovative principles which fundamentally altered first governmental & then judicial attitudes toward ownership.
7. This was accomplished by extending the principle of fundamental "rights" from the political to the economic sphere, which had the effect of converting the concept of right from meaning "security from" to "claim to".
8. In the process the word "security" was redefined, in Roosevelt's words, to mean "not only physical security...from attacks by aggressors...but also economic security, social security, moral security."
9. When the Supreme Court, operating under the old principles declared unconstitutional a number of New Deal laws, Roosevelt tried to alter its composition by adding new and more liberal justices. Although the infamous attempt to pack the Court in 1937 failed, the demoralized Court bent a retreat, and as old justices retired & appointees of Roosevelt replaced them, its philosophical complexion underwent substantial change.
10. The lacerating struggle over the validity of the New Deal Program engendered lasting hostility to the judicial protection of property rights....Once the supreme Court accepted the New Deal, the justices abruptly withdrew from the field of economic regulation. This reflected a monumental change in the Court's attitude toward property rights and entrepreneurial liberty.
11. From its inception, one scholar noted, "the Court deemed its mission to be the protection of property against depredations by the people and their legislatures. After 1937 it gave up this mission." A sharply limited concept of property rights thus operated for the next generation...Consequently, the Court gave great latitude to Congress and state legislatures to fashion economic policy, while expressing only perfunctory concern for the rights of individual property owners."

12. This change of attitude found reflection in ambitious schemes of social reform launched in both Great Britain and the United States on the outbreak of World War II and in the perception of what constitutes society's responsibility toward its less fortunate citizens.
13. From "Property and Rights" Richard Pipes, Baird Research Professor, History Harvard University

Government breaches our rights by extorting, subverting and conning us into a "voluntary" compliance

The organic laws give us the right to pursue happiness, NOT the right to happiness

"Congress shall have power to lay and collect taxes, duties, imposts and excises..."

This simple statement does not mean what many like to believe

It certainly does not mean stealing by force/tyranny via IRS, DDES, SS, FBI, DOT, Sheriff, et al

These agencies of government do not work for us, i.e. they are mere pawns

You must study hard, do your due diligence, suffer these emails to see with new eyes

The Constitution is a limitation upon government not upon the unalienable rights of state Citizens

While the states are sovereign, they must limit themselves in size & to the U.S. Constitution

State Citizens are sovereign above all government and the constituting itself

The current debauchery of extracting and redistributing a sovereign Citizen's private property is called stealing

In the Middle ages, the obligation to pay regular taxes was perceived as tantamount to the loss of personal freedom

Medieval French kings were expected to pay their own way

Merovingian & Carolingian kings defrayed costs from their estate rents, tribute levied to conquered people & war booty

The kings were forbidden to alienate any part of the royal domain

History above extracted, in part, from "Property and Rights" Richard Pipes, Baird Research Professor, History Harvard University

The government & those who control it (not us) are exponentially using desperate force

1. Government is shutting down tax freedom sites under "marketing phony tax shelters"
2. Government have raided & confiscated Representative Ron Paul precious metal campaign coins & records
3. Check out "Ron Paul & Competing Currencies" article attached above
4. The growing numbers of private property owner abuse stories are horrific

by government tax collectors, code enforcement employees, King County DDES, et al

DOT, DOE, DFW, EPA, all the alphabet soup unconstitutional government departments

The Department of Tyranny is a growing cancer in this country armies of city, county, state & federal agents are stalking & striking rural property owners.

Faux (Fox) news will not allow U.S. Representative Ron Paul on the presidential debates

i.e. big media = big business = big controls, i.e. they do not want individual free choice

Only government can take perfectly good paper, cover it with perfectly good ink and make the combination worthless.

—Milton Friedman

Destroyers seize gold and leave to its owner a counterfeit pile of paper. This kills all objective standards and delivers men into the arbitrary power of an arbitrary setter of values. Gold was an objective value, an equivalent of wealth produced. Paper is a mortgage on wealth that does not exist, backed by a gun aimed at those who are expected to produce it.

4. Are you a nonresident alien of the United States? -

<http://www.supremelaw.org/fedzone11/htm/chapter3.htm>

The citizen/alien distinction explains the two columns of The Matrix. By definition, you are an alien with respect to the United States if you are not a citizen of the United States. The happy result of The Matrix is the legal and logical equation which exists between most State Citizens and nonresident aliens. A citizen of the United States is the same thing as a federal citizen. Anyone who is not a federal citizen is an "alien" with respect to the United States. Therefore, as long as a State Citizen is not also a federal citizen, then such a State Citizen is an "alien" as that term is defined in the IRC. State Citizens are free to reside wherever they choose, because their right to travel is an unalienable right. However, the term "resident" has a very specific meaning in the IRC, whether it is used as an adjective or as a noun.

5. Sovereignty - <http://www.supremelaw.org/fedzone11/htm/chaptr11.htm>

This is 20 pages worth printing and reading to understand why you should be free and are not

The federal Constitution makes a careful distinction between natural born Citizens and citizens of the United States (compare 2:1:5 with Section 1 of the so-called 14th Amendment). One is an unconditional Sovereign by natural birth, who is endowed by the Creator with certain unalienable rights; the other has been granted the revocable privileges of U.S. citizenship, endowed by the Congress of the United States. One is a Citizen, the other is a subject. One is a Sovereign, the other is a subordinate. One is a Citizen of our constitutional Republic; the other is a citizen of a legislative democracy (the federal zone).

Notice the superior/subordinate relationship between these two statuses. I am forever indebted to M. J. "Red" Beckman, co-author of The Law That Never Was with Bill Benson, for clearly illustrating the important difference between the two. Red Beckman has delivered many eloquent lectures based on the profound simplicity of the following table:

Chain of command and authority in a:

Majority Rule

Democracy

X

Majority

Government

Public Servants

Case & Statute Law

Corporations

individual

Constitutional

Republic

Creator

Individual

Constitution

Government

Public Servants

Statute Law

Corporations

In this illustration, a democracy ruled by the majority places the individual at the bottom, and an unknown elite, Mr. "X" at the top. The majority (or mob) elects a government to hire public "servants" who write laws primarily for the benefit of corporations. These corporations are either owned or controlled by Mr. X, a clique of the ultra-wealthy who seek to restore a two-class "feudal" society. They exercise their vast economic power so as to turn all of America into a "feudal zone". The rights of individuals occupy the lowest priority in this chain of command. Those rights often vanish over time, because democracies eventually self-destruct. The enforcement of laws within this scheme is the job of administrative tribunals, who specialize in holding individuals to the letter of all rules and regulations of the corporate state, no matter how arbitrary and with little if any regard for fundamental human rights:

A democracy that recognizes only manmade laws perforce obliterates the concept of Liberty as a divine right.

A: No, I am not. I was born in Phoenix. I have lived in Maricopa County all my life, but I am not a resident. I do not reside.

Q: Are you registered to vote?

A: No, I am not.

Q: Do you have a driver's license?

A: No, I do not.

Q: Do you have any motor vehicles registered in Arizona?

A: No, I do not.

Q: Are you employed?

A: No. I am not. I am not employed. I am not unemployed. I am not self-employed. I am not gainfully employed. In fact, I am not employable. But, I work. Besides, Arizona is a right to work state.

Q: Do you pay state and federal resident income taxes?

A: No, I do not.

Q: Do you pay property taxes in Arizona?

A: No, I do not.

Q: Do you have a marriage license?

A: No, I do not.

Q: Do you have children enrolled in public school?

A: No, I do not. My children are home taught.

(Ballentine's 1948):

allodial ... Free; not held subordinatedly; opposed to "feudal." In England, all lands are held by the crown, and none are allodial. In the United States, all lands have been allodial since the American Revolution.

allodium ... An allodial estate; an estate not held under a superior. See fee.

A U.S. citizen does not have the right to hold property in allodium.
You're a second-class citizen.

16. How The Truth is Sold off in America

Media makes profit selling advertising not the truth, i.e. the truth
 offends those taking our freedom
 Political legislation has trumped the truth, our laws of the land, unalienable rights and organic law
 The collectivist feed on individual truths by transferring them their applicable group
 The central bankers bankrupted national and individual sovereignty to take our truth
 The globalist restructure our sovereignty to subvert our truth
 The progressives erode the laws of the land making our truth relative to their regulation
 20,000,000 government employees consume our truth and our

"To lay with one hand the power of the government on the property of the citizen, and with the other bestow it on favored individuals...is nonetheless robbery because it is done under the form of law and is called taxation."

U.S. Supreme Court Loan Association v. Topeka (1874)

The Bill of Rights is a born rebel. It reeks with sedition. In every clause it shakes its fist in the face of constituted authority...it is the one guaranty of human freedom to the American people.

"It is in vain, sir, to extenuate the matter. Gentlemen may cry, Peace, Peace--but there is no peace. The war is actually begun! The next gale that sweeps from the north will bring to our ears the clash of resounding arms! Our brethren are already in the field! Why stand we here idle? What is it that gentlemen wish? What would they have? Is life so dear, or peace so sweet, as to be purchased at the price of chains and slavery? Forbid it, Almighty God! I know not what course others may take; but as for me, give me liberty or give me death!" Patrick Henry March 23, 1775 <http://www.law.ou.edu/ushistory/henry.shtml>

Do Courts Have Law Making Powers?

BOOKLET NOW AVAILABLE AT COST!

Prompted by the Supreme Court's outrageous action, ignoring the actual language of the 5th Amendment by declaring that private property may be seized by government and turned over to private developers for their personal gain, and the long history of abusive federal case law, the Save-A-Patriot Fellowship's Fiduciary, John Baptist Kotmair, Jr., has written this comprehensive documentary of the actual jurisdictional authority of the federal courts.

This treatise is not only an enlightening tool for the Patriot, but is ideal for dissemination to those many uninformed Americans who are not only shocked by this attack on private property, but also concerned about the possibility of their own property being in jeopardy.

We believe this information needs to be spread as widely as possible, therefore we are making printed copies of this 36-page booklet available at cost: 3.00 FRNs* each, postpaid. Order as many as you can and SPREAD THE WORD!

"Piercing the Illusion"

Introduction from the cover:

"Deals with the whys and wherefores of the dwindling of American Individual Liberties. It sets straight the widespread misconceptions of what Freedom really is. It leads the reader through American history, revealing facts that are not taught in the established version of history to which our children are subjected. It exposes beyond a shadow of a doubt how Americans have been enslaved and don't even realize it. It names the individuals and presents irrefutable evidence of their treasonous acts. It reveals how America is 180 degrees from the purpose of its founding."

Accolades for Piercing the Illusion...

"You have succinctly detailed the many past and continuing attempts being made by the socialists to return mankind to a state of servitude and ignorance and what steps we must take NOW to preserve our NATURAL right to be free and responsible citizens."

-- Michael Jon Kell, MD PhD

"Written in John Kotmair's folksy style, 'Piercing the Illusion' was a joy to read. More importantly, it is packed with indispensable information that all Americans need to know. It serves well as another great reference tool for those in the Constitutionalist movement."
