Subject: Two morons...

Two morons.

And you can bet there is no one in his administration with enough respect for and knowledge about the flag to point out their error. Notice their sourpuss faces at having to perform some gesture towards a nation they fundamentally hate.

Unbelievable
As any American knows, we place our right hand over our heart when we recite the Pledge of Allegiance.

And for anyone who thinks this may be a "mirror-image" picture, please note the wedding rings on the ring fingers of their LEFT HANDS and the RIGHT side of the "Messiah's" suit coat where the buttons are.

These two morons are so clueless, they can't possibly be Americans!
